Families make sweet memories at Tasty Image in Bethesda

By Agnes Blum Staff Writer

Children and families who have experienced the pain of homelessness, mental illness, substance abuse or other traumas may not have many happy memories to draw on and may not know how to provide them for their children, according to Victoria Karakcheyeva, the program director for a housing program with Volunteers of America Chesapeake.

To help them create some happy memories they can keep, and to learn how to care for themselves and their children, Volunteers of America Chesapeake organized an outing for
